

SUFFOLK COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE DISTRICT ATTORNEY KEVIN R. HAYDEN

JOB TITLE: Assistant District Attorney in the Special Victims Bureau (SVB) assigned to the Human Trafficking and Exploitation Unit (HTEU)

REPORTS TO: Unit Chief and Bureau Chief

COMPENSATION: $88,500; commensurate with experience

FLSA STATUS: Full-time/Exempt

POSITION PROFILE:

The Suffolk County District Attorney's Office (SCDAO) is seeking an experienced attorney with exceptional investigation and litigation skills to join its Special Victims Bureau (SVB) as an ADA assigned to the Human Trafficking and Exploitation Unit (HTEU).

An Assistant District Attorney in the Special Victims Bureau assigned to the Human Trafficking and Exploitation Unit is responsible for all human trafficking cases and investigations; cases involving online abuse, exploitation, and child sexual abuse materials; and pre-arrest investigations related to youth at risk for exploitation. In addition, ADAs are responsible for investigating cases that may remain in district court and be handled by a district court team.

Also, as an Assistant District Attorney in the SVB, they may receive assignments from the units within the Special Victims Bureau including the Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Unit and the Child Protection Unit in addition to their assigned cases from the Human Trafficking and Exploitation Unit. All units within the SVB investigate and prosecute some of the most challenging cases handled by the office, and members of these units are committed to resolving them with discretion and compassion for the victims and survivors. Prosecutors, advocates, and investigators assigned to the Special Victims Bureau are dedicated to making the process as safe and streamlined as possible for those who have been victimized. Members of the Special Victims Bureau have fostered important relationships and partnerships with outside agencies and providers, in an effort to get victims, survivors, and their families all of the assistance they may need.

Per SCDAO's vaccine mandate, as a condition of employment, successful applicants will be required to have received COVID-19 vaccination or an approved exemption as of their start date. Details on demonstrating compliance with this requirement will be provided to applicants selected for employment.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

- Work closely with victim witness advocates, law enforcement, court personnel, the defense bar, criminal justice agencies, community partners, and the public to ensure successful, holistic approach to prosecution that balances the safety and well-being of the victims, defendants, and communities we serve.
- Represent the Commonwealth at all stages of criminal prosecution in the Suffolk Superior Court. This includes, but is not limited to:
 - Conducting complex grand jury investigations;
 - Handling arraignments and corresponding motions, such as bail requests, conditions of release, dangerousness hearings, and bail revocation hearings, as appropriate;
